

Right to Information Act 2005 is enacted by Indian Parliament No.22 of 2005 [Section 4(1)(b)] for visualization of information of any organization. North Eastern Regional Institute of Water and Land Management shortly NERIWALM is publishing all basic information of the institute in respect of different functions, duties, power of the officers and employees procedures followed in the decisions making process, rules, regulations, instructions, manuals, records, documents, budget allocations, remuneration of officers, statement of Councils, Governing Body and other information as may be prescribed and there after update these publications every year through this page for all categories of citizens of India